

7th Grade Band

Description: Seventh grade band provides students with an opportunity to continue learning to play their chosen wind or percussion instrument. Students will learn new rhythms and work to increase their technical range and facility on their instrument. Students will improve their sight-reading ability and work to make their own musical choices within their literature. Students play collaboratively in large group rehearsals as well as in small group or individual lessons. Performance opportunities include concerts, contests, and shared opportunities with other bands. Ongoing reflection and feedback is key to personal and ensemble growth.
