

8th Grade Choir

Description: 8th grade chorus is an elective for all students who wish to continue building skills as singers and musicians. No audition is required. This class emphasizes healthy singing technique and basic music literacy. 8th grade chorus performs a wide variety of choral repertoire in the winter and spring. Additional performance opportunities may be available. The group meets on either blue or white days (approximately 2-3 times per week) opposite band or guided study.
