

Course Title: Third Grade General Music

Music is an essential and enriching part of our lives. Performing, creating, and responding to music can connect communities and foster personal growth and meaning. As Third graders engage in music instruction they will:

- Introduce harmony through ostinato and canon singing
- Respond to a variety of music through movement
- Explore a variety of instrumental arrangements
- Read, write, perform, and create music using simple rhythmic and melodic notation
- Refine technique for playing barred instruments
- Demonstrate appropriate audience and performance etiquette
